Faculty Agendas, Deliberations & Management Resolutions

List of Agendas

1. Conference Room Provision
2. Summer Break Schedule Adjustment
3. Reassessment of Half-Day Leave Policy
4. Formation of Departmental Moderation Team

Discussions

1. Conference Room Provision- Faculty members emphasized an urgent requirement for a dedicated conference room on campus. In response, management plans to relocate the existing conference room and requested patience from the faculty during the transition period.
2. Summer Break Schedule Adjustment- Faculty members requested moving the summer break to July so that regular classes can begin immediately following exams. Management agreed to consider the schedule change, provided faculty members complete the syllabus on time and maintain regular student attendance after examinations.
3. Reassessment of Half-Day Leave Policy- Faculty members requested a policy review to better accommodate unexpected personal emergencies. Management noted that half-day leaves are currently granted on humanitarian grounds and agreed to revise the policy if necessary.
4. Formation of Departmental Moderation Team- Faculty members proposed setting up a departmental Moderation Team due to concerns over promoting. Management agreed to consider establishing an HOD-inclusive Moderation Team for odd semesters, while directing faculty to refine teaching methods, minimize failure rates, and maintain strict evaluation accuracy.

Time - 12:00 noon

Ref. NPC/IQAC/2026/02

Meeting Minutes:

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) meeting was held on 25th

September, 2026 at 12:00 noon in the college library. Ms.

Nungsangmongla Ozukum, Asst. Professor & IQAC Coordinator

welcomed everyone and Ms. Limayala Chagkilari, Asst. Professor led the invocation. Dr. K. Timothy Langwangbe, Principal & IQAC

Chairperson, gave the welcoming address and encouraged the Students Council Executives representatives and faculty members to give constructive suggestions. He stressed on the importance of everyone working collaboratively on quality improvements without any reservations. This was followed by introduction of the Student Council Executives representatives by Ruyilu Chiero, General

Secretary, BA 5th semester. The review of the previous IQAC meeting held on 6th February 2026 and reaffirmation of Action Taken Report

(ATR) was then initiated by Ms. Nungsangmongla Ozukum, Asst.

Professor & IQAC Coordinator.

Student Council Agendas & Resolutions

List of Agendas

1. Student Health & Mental Health Awareness Workshop
2. Campus Podcast and Media Studio Setup
3. Campus Healthcare and First Aid Centre
4. Campus Mini Market
5. Official Student Council T-Shirt (Polo)

Discussions

1. Student Health & Mental Health Awareness Workshop- The Student Council proposed organizing regular workshops focusing on physical and mental well-being to help students handle academic pressure, exam stress, and career uncertainties. Management approved holding a one-day workshop next semester in consultation with professional psychologists and counselors.
2. Campus Podcast and Media Studio Setup- The Student Council proposed setting up a podcast and media studio to help students build digital and communication skills. Management noted that establishing a media studio is not feasible at present, though it will be kept under future consideration. Students were advised to maintain focus on their core academic pursuits.

NORMAN PUTSURE COLLEGE

CHUMOUKEDIMA : NAGALAND

3 . Campus Healthcare and First Aid Centre- The Student Council requested a campus healthcare center with trained personnel and medical supplies for emergencies. Management resolved that a First Aid Box will be provided on campus. While a separate sick room and full-time medical staff are not feasible given current enrollment, emergency resting facilities (a bed, chairs, and benches) will be made available in the Girls' Common Room, and college transport will remain available for urgent transfers to nearby hospitals or local health centers.

4 . Campus Mini Market- The Student Council proposed a student-run campus market to develop entrepreneurial, marketing, and financial management skills. Management approved the proposal on the condition that interested students submit clear plans detailing the venue and schedule. The market will operate under management guidance and faculty supervision, with a potential student entrepreneurship platform planned for next semester once goals are clarified.

5 . Official Student Council T-Shirt (Polo)- The Student Council proposed official polo T-shirts featuring the college logo and designations to increase leadership visibility during college functions. Management agreed to keep the proposal under consideration for the future, noting that Executive Council members currently wear official designation badges during events.

Ms. Nungsangmongla Ozukum, Asst. Professor & IQAC Coordinator advised the Student Council Executive representatives to conduct proper uniform checks and surprise checks tobacco products in students' bags, pockets and in the classrooms, rather than rushing through the process.

The 1st session with the Student Council Executive representatives, faculty members and management ended at 12:40 pm. A short tea break ensued.

2. Department of History
3. Department of Sociology
4. Department of Education
5. Department of Political Science

Departmental Reviews & Discussions

1. Department of English

Presented by Mrs. Vizonno (Assistant Professor).

Syllabus completion and internship report submissions are progressing on schedule, with the external viva voce slated for completion by 30th September 2026. The department organized its 2nd Lecture Series virtually on "The Cultural Table: Food, Memory and Identity" featuring Dr. Harit Sambhabana Khandayatray as the resource person. Additional presentations and tests are being conducted to boost internal assessment scores, while funds were raised by 5th semester students for an upcoming department picnic and exposure trip. A Children's Day celebration is planned before the semester ends.

Student achievements include Temsunenla Jamir (BA 1st Sem) securing 3rd position in the Poetry Slam Competition at the IUN Youth Festival 2026, Hangming Lam (BA 1st Sem) securing 2nd position in Face Painting at the St. Joseph University Psych Fest 2026, and Ruyilu Chiero (BA 5th Sem) being inducted as a Lumos Achiever.

Faculty professional development included participation by Dr. Kevibeinuo Nguzhülie, Mrs. Asino Bei-o, Mrs. Vizonno, and Ms. Limayala Changkilari in a UGC-MMTTC online course on NEP Orientation & Sensitization. Dr. Kevibeinuo Nguzhülie also completed a one-week online FDP on "Body Literature: Gender, Identity and Cultural Representation in Literary Texts."

CHUMOUKEDIMA : NAGALAND

2. Department of History

Presented by Mr. Kaikho Loli (Assistant Professor, HOD & IQAC Member).

Academic progress indicates strong performance among 1st and 5th semester students, whereas 3rd semester performance requires improvement. Remedial classes are being initiated for students needing academic support, and low-attendance students across all semesters are being closely monitored. The department successfully hosted its 2nd History Fest on the theme "Resonance of the Indian Spectrum: A Symphony of Culture and Time," featuring various competitions.

Student achievement highlights Nutolu Keyho (BA 3rd Sem) being inducted as a Lumos Achiever.

Faculty engagement included participation by Mr. Kaikho Loli, Ms.

Nungsangmongla Ozukum, and Ms. Diezevinuo Seyie in the UGC-MMTTC NEP Orientation & Sensitization course. Additional faculty activities included research methodology workshops, an online training on "Understanding Autism" by NCERT, an archive competition by the National Archives of India, an archaeological heritage talk at NECU, the BEFR 1873 National Seminar, and the Nagaland Education Conclave 2026 on NEP 2020. Mr. Kaikho Loli is also scheduled to participate in a Faculty Exchange Programme at Eastern Christian College on 29th September 2026.

3. Department of Sociology

Presented by Mr. Lorence Ngushe (Assistant Professor, HOD & IQAC Member).

The department conducted its 3rd Lecture Series on "Academic Paper Presentation: Strategies for Research and Delivery" featuring Dr. Khobu Tsolo. An outreach program titled "Sociology Gives Back" was organized at El Shaddai Children's Home.

Student achievement highlights Bonbon Newmai (BA 5th Sem), who is currently the top academic performer in the college and has been inducted into Lumos.

Faculty members Mr. Lorence Ngushe, Ms. Vilbonu Kulnu, and Mr. Keyolel Zhale completed the UGC-MMTTC online course on NEP Orientation & Sensitization.

CHUMOUKEDIMA : NAGALAND

4. Department of Education

Presented by Dr. Neikhrolo-u Wetsah (Assistant Professor & Assistant Coordinator, IQAC).

Syllabus completion is on track across all papers using student-centric teaching methods. Student attendance and internal assessment performance are good in the 5th semester, satisfactory in the 3rd semester, but low/average in the 1st semester. Mentoring sessions and regular student feedback collection are actively maintained, with remedial classes to be scheduled following final assessment results. The department celebrated Friendship Day, organized a Department Banner Design Competition, hosted its 3rd Lecture Series on "Domains of Intelligence," and scheduled an exposure trip to Guwahati from 25th to 27th September 2026.

Student achievements include Rudisenuo (BA 5th Sem), Tenou Therie (BA 5th Sem), and Mary Koza (BA 3rd Sem) being inducted as Lumos Achievers.

Faculty development saw Dr. Esther Hau, Dr. Neikhrolo-u Wetsah, and Ms. Repamenla complete the UGC-MMTTC NEP Orientation & Sensitization course. Ms. Repamenla also completed the NCERT online training program on "Understanding Autism."

5. Department of Political Science

Presented by Ms. Vanlalenkawli (Assistant Professor & HOD).

Syllabus coverage is progressing as scheduled, with internal assessments and internship reports currently being finalized. Attendance stands at 80% or above for all 1st semester students, while low attendance was identified among 3 students each in the 3rd and 5th semesters. Internal assessment performance is satisfactory for 1st and 5th semesters but requires improvement in the 3rd semester. Mentoring sessions are held every Tuesday, and a formal end-of-semester feedback mechanism is being introduced starting this term. A guest lecture on "From Motherhood to Political Action: Maternal Activism in Nagaland" by Dr. Limongi Khuvung Lapon is scheduled for 26th September 2026.

Student achievements include Eunice C. Sangtam (BA 5th Sem), Kiviboli Achumi (BA 5th Sem), Priti Kumari (BA 3rd Sem), and Hmingropuii (BA 3rd Sem) being inducted as Lumos Achievers.

Faculty members Ms. Vanlalenkawli, Ms. Avani Ngullie, and Mr. Ningmi Shally attended the UGC-MMTTC NEP Orientation course. Faculty members and student delegates also participated in the BEFR 1873 National Seminar, the Nagaland Education Conclave 2026, and an awareness program on Special Intensive Revision at the DC Office in Chümoukedima.

Management Directives

Management Directives to Faculty

Dr. K. Timothy Langwangbe (Principal & IQAC Chairperson) directed faculty members to fulfill the following responsibilities:

Departmental Evaluation: Identify weaknesses and challenges within one's own department to provide targeted guidance and support to students, approaching management whenever additional intervention is required.

Documentation: Maintain accurate and thorough documentation of all departmental activities, events, and programs.

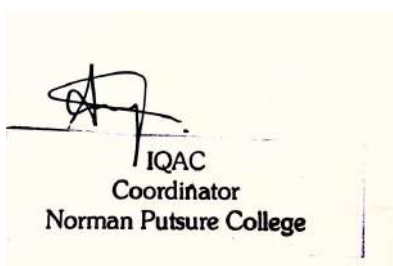

Student Motivation: Highlight and acknowledge student achievements—particularly through the Lumos Group—to inspire academic excellence across the student body.

Tracking Participation: Actively track and record student participation in external events, competitions, and programs.

Individual Student Support: Dedicate time to meet with every student individually to offer personalized guidance.

Meeting Conclusion

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) meeting concluded at 3:10 PM with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Vanlalenkawli (Assistant Professor & IQAC Member).
